68 districts of 26 States including 2 districts of Assam. Observations made by C&AG in its report in respect of Assam are as under:

(i) State share was not released within 15 days of the release of Central Funds.

(ii) The Programme Officer/BDO did not submit utilization certificate for utilization of at least 60% of funds at their disposal while applying for the next installment.

(iii) While demanding additional funds, the Gram Panchayats did not furnish the report of the Village Monitoring Committee duly approved by the Gram Sabha.

(iv) No cases of diversion and irregular expenditure was found in Assam.

C&AG in his report has recommended that State Government should ensure timely release of their share and issue necessary instructions to ensure that NREGS funds are not diverted or mis-utilized. It has also recommended that in order to guard against any malpractice, the State Government should ensure that the monthly squaring of accounts is regularly conducted.

(b) The Government of Assam has issued instructions to District Programme Coordinators to adhere to the requirements of the NREGA Guidelines for management of NREGA funds. The Government of India closely monitors the release of funds to the States.
